One week-long protest in Andhra division'

Rajast Lok Seva Co

The protesters were charged with offences like damage to statues of national leaders, buses (both APSRTC and private buses) and public property, besides, rioting and assault. For the cases pertaining to damage to statues of national leaders, 39 cases have been registered and 94 accused have been arrested, the ADG said.

Damage to statues is an insult to the memory of national leaders. It is bound to provoke strong reaction and also cause animosity between different groups, the official said, adding in view of this police has invoked specific provisions of law, including section 153-A (promoting enmity between different groups on ground of religion, race, place of birth, etc. and doing acts prejudicial to maintenance of harmony) of IPC.

Police urged the local community to co-operate with them in protecting the statues, which they themselves had installed, out of respect and affection for national leaders.

It was also noticed that certain vested interests were indulging in mudslinging against the police personnel, Kaumudi said and warned that such acts would be viewed seriously and the offenders could be liable for stringent criminal action: (PTI)

JAIPUR, AUG 7 /—/ The Rajasthian government has decided to set up a Lok Seva Guarantee Commission to provide time-bound public services in the state.

At a Cabinet meeting chaired by Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot here late last night, it was decided to create the posts of Chief Commissioner and Commissioners in districts under Lok Seva Guarantee 'Adhiniyam' (Right to Public Services Legislation).

To set up the Commission, the state govern-
