Team: CBI directed to read statement of former PM Manmohan Singh

Delhi: CBI was today directed by trial court to examine former Prime Minister Manmohan Singh in the case of Talabira Hindalco when he was also Coal Minister in 2005. Ending the matter back to CBI for further investigation after it had filed a closure report in the case, Special Judge Bharat Parashar said it would be "appropriate" that the then Coal Minister be "first examined" regarding various aspects of the matter. "I am of the considered opinion that before the matter is examined further as to what offence, if any, stands committed or by whom the same has been committed, it will be appropriate that the then Minister of Coal (Manmohan Singh) be first examined qua various aspects of the matter and also in light of the observations made by this court in the present order," the judge said. Besides Manmohan Singh, the court also said that some top officers, who were working in Prime Minister's Office (PMO) at that time and were concerned with the process of allocation of coal block to HINDALCO, were "either not examined.

Sweden Carl XVI Gustaf in the latter part of May 25, 2015. Bose reportedly said that the newspaper failed to show the President the "courtesy and respect" that he deserves as the head of state. "It was both unprofessional and unethical on your part to include in the report an off the record correction made by the President after the interview had ended, about a slip of the tongue during the interview." The newspaper has, however, defended the publication of President's remarks. "In a telephone conversation with DN (Dagens Nyheter) prior to the publication of the article the Ambassador made a direct request that DN was to retract sections of the interview mentioning Bofors. She also warned that the planned state visit was at risk of being cancelled," Dagens Nyheter said in a report published on its website. The report further quotes Wolodarski as telling the Indian ambassador "...that we couldn't accept her demands. The President became engaged and was upset when Bofors was mentioned during a question regarding how we can avoid corruption today. Of course we had to tell our readers about his reaction"
