now struggling for existence due to non availability of Bauxite mine. President of the Parishad, Sridhar Pesnia alleged that despite an MoU between VAL and Odisha government for provision of Bauxite mine through Odisha Mining Corporation (OMC) to run this plant, not a grain of ore was made available to the plant, causing apprehension about closure of the refinery.

The company is managing to get Bauxite ore from outside the state and country but it is highly expensive. The stage one environment clearance was accorded for mining in Niyamgiri, but stage 2 environment clearance was refused. Pesnia demanded that Bauxite be made available from any source to the plant for the running of the plant and to revive the economy of the area.

transport in eral budget

IRUVANANTHAPURAM,
JAN 24 /--/ Seeking to mop up funds for its development and welfare initiatives, Kerala's Congress-led UDF government today hiked taxes and levies touching mostly motor vehicles, liquor, textiles and buildings.

In its budget for 2014-15 presented in the state Assembly, state finance minister K M Mani sought to raise additional resources of Rs 1556.35 crore while giving emphasis on farm sector and increasing various welfare pensions. Claiming that the levies were being rationalised, the budget proposed to collect around Rs 260 crore from motor vehicles and transport sector alone. This is not only expected to affect the affluent but also the common man may have to pay more to travel in autorickshaws.

The budget sharply increased the purchase tax on imported vehicles, lumpsum tax on motor cars of various capacities and size, new generation caravans and inter-state coaches. It also hiked the duty on Indian Made Foreign Liquor (IMFL) by 10 per cent, eyeing to net an additional amount of Rs 400 crore. In a proposal that could impact the real estate business, the finance minister rationalised the compounding taxes on metal crusher units and brought manufactured sand under the tax net, which together would contribute Rs 140 crore. The concession enjoyed by eateries selling multi-national brands had been withdrawn, making the food sold by them costly. The exchequer targets to get Rs 10 crore from its. The service apartments given on daily rent basis had been slapped with a 12.5 per cent tax. The budget proposed to double taxes on building and levy on luxury buildings, seeking to mop

Shinde asks Maharashtra home minister to take step in techie murder case

NEW DELHI, JAN 24 /--/ Union home minister Sushilkumar Shinde today asked the Maharashtra government to take "swift action" and nab those involved in the murder of a woman software engineer in Mumbai after her father met him seeking justice.

In a letter to Maharashtra home minister R R Patil, Shinde said father of 23-year-old Esther Anuhya, whose burnt body was found on the outskirts of Mumbai, met him and requested for a thorough enquiry into the matter and stringent action against the guilty.

"I shall be grateful if swift action is taken in the matter and persons involved in this heinous crime are brought to book at the earliest," Shinde said in his letter to Patil. After meeting the home minister, Anuhya's father Jonathan Surendra Prasad said no parent should have to face the trauma he faced while searching for his daughter.

"I have apprised the home minister about the unfortunate incident. Police did not help us at all. We ourselves looked for my daughter after she went missing. And finally, after ten days, her body was recovered. No parent should face the kind of trauma that I have faced," Shinde told newsmen here.
